

Galway International Hotel School

Open Day Schedule-Saturday November 5th, 2022

Time	Event	Hosted by / Location
10am to 1pm 	School Stand on the first floor. Meet Lecturers and Students of Galway International Hotel School, who will answer your questions.	Hotel – Brian Morrissey/Marie Burke/Helen Delargy Heritage –Cian Marnell/Fergal O’Dowd Languages – Cian Marnell/Natalie Nevin Culinary –Maria O’Grady/Richard Nielsen Tourism/Event-Tom Edwards
10.30 – 11.00am 	Join Head of Department Diarmuid Ó Conghaile to hear about new courses for 2023, Erasmus opportunities, International Work Placements and the Global Graduate opportunities	Lecture Theatre 994
11am- 11.30am 	The World of Tourism – why choose it. Join current students Jordan and Sarah plus Tourism graduate Max who will share their reasons for choosing these courses and this university. They will also discuss work placements and graduate job opportunities.	Lecture Theatre 994 Diarmuid Ó Conghaile Max Reid (graduate) Sarah Walsh (Event Yr. 4) Jordan Kielty Barrins (Yr. 4)
11am-12.30 	‘Little Lou Cooks Family Style’. @littlouloucooks Join culinary graduate and Instagram rising star Louise Robbie - ‘LittleLouCooks’ who will share easy family recipes accessible to all. Don’t miss the fabulous tastings at the end.	Demonstration Theatre Cáit Noone-MC
10am – 1pm 	Visit the Culinary Immersive Experience. This session will showcase the diversity of subjects covered in a Culinary Arts degree and illustrate the variety of career opportunities. This event includes a Product Development poster presentation and video of final year students work. There will be an interactive sensory analysis session where students will be invited to test their sense of taste and smell.	The Connemara Training Restaurant -coordinated by Anne O’Leary and joined by colleagues - -Clare Gilsean -Ulrich Hoeche -Ann Flanagan -Mary Reid