

International Congress on Architectural Technology

Student Event, Thursday 18th January 2024

Atlantic Technological University, Galway City

This is a great opportunity to network with peers from a variety of universities and to learn and grow your knowledge from each other about Architectural Technology detailing and about the profession of Architectural Technology, as well as your representative professional body, the Chartered Institute of Architectural Technologists, and the role of AspirATion chair. CIAT will award student prize(s). All students participating will be issued with a Certificate on the day as well.

Students who attend must register for the event in advance on Eventbrite: <https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/icat-2024-the-10th-international-congress-on-architectural-technology-tickets-753128988077?aff=oddtcreator>
